Dear Hiring Manager,

Please accept the attached resume for the position of Software Engineering Intern as recently posted on the company's website. The opportunity presented in this listing is very appealing, and I believe that my experience and education will make me a competitive candidate for this position. I am currently pursuing my Masters in Information Systems from Northeastern University and I am eager to gain more practical experience with a firm like Citrix.

I have a work experience of more than 2 years in software development, during which I have mainly worked on project developed using Java (mostly J2EE). I have a good experience and knowledge of developing applications using this programming language. Having said that, I also have decent knowledge of C# and ASP.NET, as I have done a certification on .NET Technologies from National Institute of Information Technology, India. During my time at Omegakart and Web Access, I have worked on Web Application projects and hence have good knowledge of HTML5, JQuery, AJAX and JSON as well. I am also well acquainted with deploying web applications using Apache Tomcat and have decent experience in implementing multi-threading concepts in the applications. Most of my development work was done using Windows, so I can say that I have a decent knowledge about the Windows operating System. I have also worked on databases and hence possess good working knowledge of designing and creating databases using MySQL and MS SQL Server.

You will find me to be well-spoken, energetic, confident, and personable, the type of person on whom your customers will rely. I am confident that with the help of my experience, interests and character, I can provide value to you and your customers as a member of your team.

If you would like to get in touch to discuss my application and to arrange an interview, you can contact me via phone or email, which I have already provided at the beginning of the letter. I greatly appreciate you taking the time to review my credentials and experience.

Sincerely,

Vineet L. Dandekar
